CROWN ROYAL CASK NO. 16 — The ultra-premium Canadian whiskey begins with a blend of more than 50 different and individually aged whiskeys. The blend is then placed in authentic French Limousin oak casks. The whiskey comes in a 750 ml decanter-style bottle, which is wrapped in a black velvet bag with gold stitching and enclosed in a black and gold gift tube.

The spirit has a suggested retail price of $100.

WILD TURKEY AMERICAN SPIRIT — The limited-edition, 100-proof, 15-year-old bourbon has been released to commemorate the unique qualities and history of bourbon as the all-American spirit. The whiskey will be bottled at bond proof and packaged in a bottle sealed with a strip stamp reminiscent of the "bottled in bond" seal in a commemorative wooden box. The brand will be available in very limited quantities and will retail for about $89.99 for a 750 ml bottle.

KILO KAI — The spiced rum from Curacao recently launched in the Chicago area and soon will be launched throughout the Midwest and on the West Coast.

FOLONARI RIESLING — The 100 percent riesling is produced in Pavia in the Lombardy region of Italy. It has a suggested retail price for of $7 for a 750 ml bottle and $11 for 1.5 liter.

HANGOVER BUSTER— The product from Pillar Rock USA Corp. is an effervescent tablet formulated to prevent hangover symptoms such as nausea, headache, excessive thirst, fatigue, muscle ache and sensitivity to light and noise. A package includes three individually foil-wrapped tablets to be dissolved in water and taken throughout an evening of alcohol consumption. Each lemon-lime flavored tablet includes a blend of Vitamins A, C and B12, as well as ginseng extract and other FDA-approved ingredients. Available over-the-counter, the product is sugar, dairy and animal product free.
